Dear Chairman,

I am writing to you on behalf of the Forensic Science Police Service to confirm our support of the University of Piemonte² (UPO) to be member of the European Cybercrime & Education Group.

As executive manager of the National Police, in charge of research valorisation and international relations³, I can state that The University of Piemonte, in the person of Professor Cosimo Anglano of the Computer Science Institute – DiSIT, has provided an excellent support during investigations and training development in the area of cybercrime investigations since 2008.

The work of his team and the cooperation established has provided a valuable support to our activity and we look forward for future developments.

Yours sincerely,

Technical Executive Manager of the National Police
